

DEBDEN AND DISTRICT CHAMBER OF COMMERCE PRESENTS:

BRENDA ROBINSON WITH HOW TO ENGAGE TODAY'S VOLUNTEERS

Why is it always all of the same people doing all of the work all of the time? Well maybe that is happening because we are struggling to engage and include new volunteers who will balance the workload. Who is the new volunteer? Where are they? What are they waiting for? What does it take to involve them? Why is it such a challenge to interest a new volunteer? Why would they rather just give than get involved?
